

Toronto Police Service

32 Division – Major Crime Unit

WANTED

Frauds/Robberies Targeting Senior Citizens

Toronto Police Service

London Regional Police

Waterloo Regional Police

Niagara Regional Police

Canada Wide Warrant

Richard Earl RUPERT

Born: 1956.01.04

No Fixed Address

Description: male, white, 5'5"- 5'6", 140-160 lbs, dirty blonde/grey hair with receding hair line, clean shaven, chiselled cheek bones, ruddy (reddish) complexion, hazel eyes.

Richard RUPERT is wanted by the Toronto Police Service on a Canada Wide Warrant for a number of frauds and robberies targeting senior citizens. Rupert is a suspect in a large number of occurrences spanning right across Canada.

RUPERT befriends senior citizens, convinces them he's a nephew, a distant relative or in some cases a member of building management. He then asks for money, usually for car repairs. Rupert gets the victim to attend a bank with him where they withdraw a large amount of money and give it to him believing he intended to repay the money.

Bank employees are asked to be especially vigilant when dealing with customers who are senior citizens and accompanied by a male matching the above description.

If you know of Rupert's whereabouts or have any further information regarding him please contact your local police department or phone Toronto Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477(TIPS), or online at www.222tips.com.

To contact the 32 Division Major Crime Unit directly, call 416-808-3200

